

Funderburk Named President 2008-2009 Independent Banks of South Carolina (IBSC)

Mr. Henry M. Funderburk, III, President and CEO of Darlington County Bank, Darlington, SC was elected President of the Independent Banks of South Carolina (IBSC) at the IBSC Annual Convention in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands. Funderburk was born in Columbia, SC, and now resides in Darlington, South Carolina with his wife Anne. They have three grown children Hal, Michael, and Amy.

Funderburk's career in banking began with First National Bank of South Carolina and South Carolina National Bank. He served as Vice President for Wachovia before his current position as President and CEO of Darlington County Bank.

Funderburk holds a number of leadership positions in his Darlington County community. He currently serves as Director for the Florence-Darlington Technical College Educational Foundation Board and the Darlington Downtown Revitalization Association. He previously served as President of the Kiwanis in 2003 and 2004.

Henry is an Elder at Darlington Presbyterian Church. In his spare time Funderburk enjoys golf, fishing, and hunting.

Other officers elected by the Independent Banks were: President-Elect, J. Barry Ham, The Bank of Clarendon, Manning, SC; Vice President, J. Allard Young, The Commercial Bank, Honea Path, SC; Secretary/Treasurer, R. Thornwell Dunlap, III, The Countybank, Greenwood, SC. Board members elected were: District 2: Todd G. Buddin, Heritage Community Bank, Hartsville, SC; District 3: Matthew W. Way, Community Resource Bank, Orangeburg, SC; District 4: William C. Lyerly, III, First South Bank, Columbia, SC, and Michael W. Robinson, The Peoples Bank, Iva, SC.

The Independent Banks of South Carolina (IBSC) is an association of 53 locally owned and operated banks in South Carolina, which promotes the interests and general welfare of the independent community banks within the state.